So with a, "go ahead," from the previous group, we've now picked up this series!!
The series isn't that far behind the raws, only a few chapters at most, so it shouldn't be too long before we catch up to the raws. As for as quality goes, we'll try keep as close to the previous group as possible, and make as little changes to the translations/editing as possible.
As for scheduling, we'll probably put this one as a biweekly release so expect another chapter from us soon!
